CUSTER AND KELLEY TRIUMPH FROM A 50 CAR FIELD

A 50 car field was on hand for the second night of the NASCAR pro stock season last Saturday at Saugus Speedway, and Terry Custer and Brian Kelley scored their first wins of 1992.

Dusty McDonald started on the pole for the 25-lap NASCAR pro stock feature and led the early laps before being passed by John Beard on lap six. Gerrit Cromsigt moved to second on lap seven and then on lap nine, Beard and Cromsigt made contact down the front stretch. Cromsigt went into the infield and back onto the track in the lead. The caution flag came out and the race back to the flag saw Cromsigt followed by McDonald, Rick Crow and Beard. Cromsigt was placed back behind Beard in fourth giving the lead back to McDonald. However, Crow moved to the lead on lap eleven. Meanwhile, Custer was working his way from 12th starting position up to challenge Crow. On lap 20, Custer moved passed Crow and went on to the win. Crow was second with Cromsigt third, point leader Scott Dinger fourth and Oliver Aguilar fifth.

Richard Iannolo took the lead in the 15-lap NASCAR pro stock just after the start until while working lap four, Iannolo spun coming off turn two. The cars just behind missed Iannolo's spinning car but in the traffic behind, Glen Whitton ran into Iannolo bringing out a red flag. Aguilar was the leader for the restart, but Kelley was just behind in second. Aguilar held on to the lead until lap eight when Kelley found his was passed into the lead. Kelley drove on to the win with Aguilar second, Rip Michels third, Ed Horst fourth and Dinger fifth.

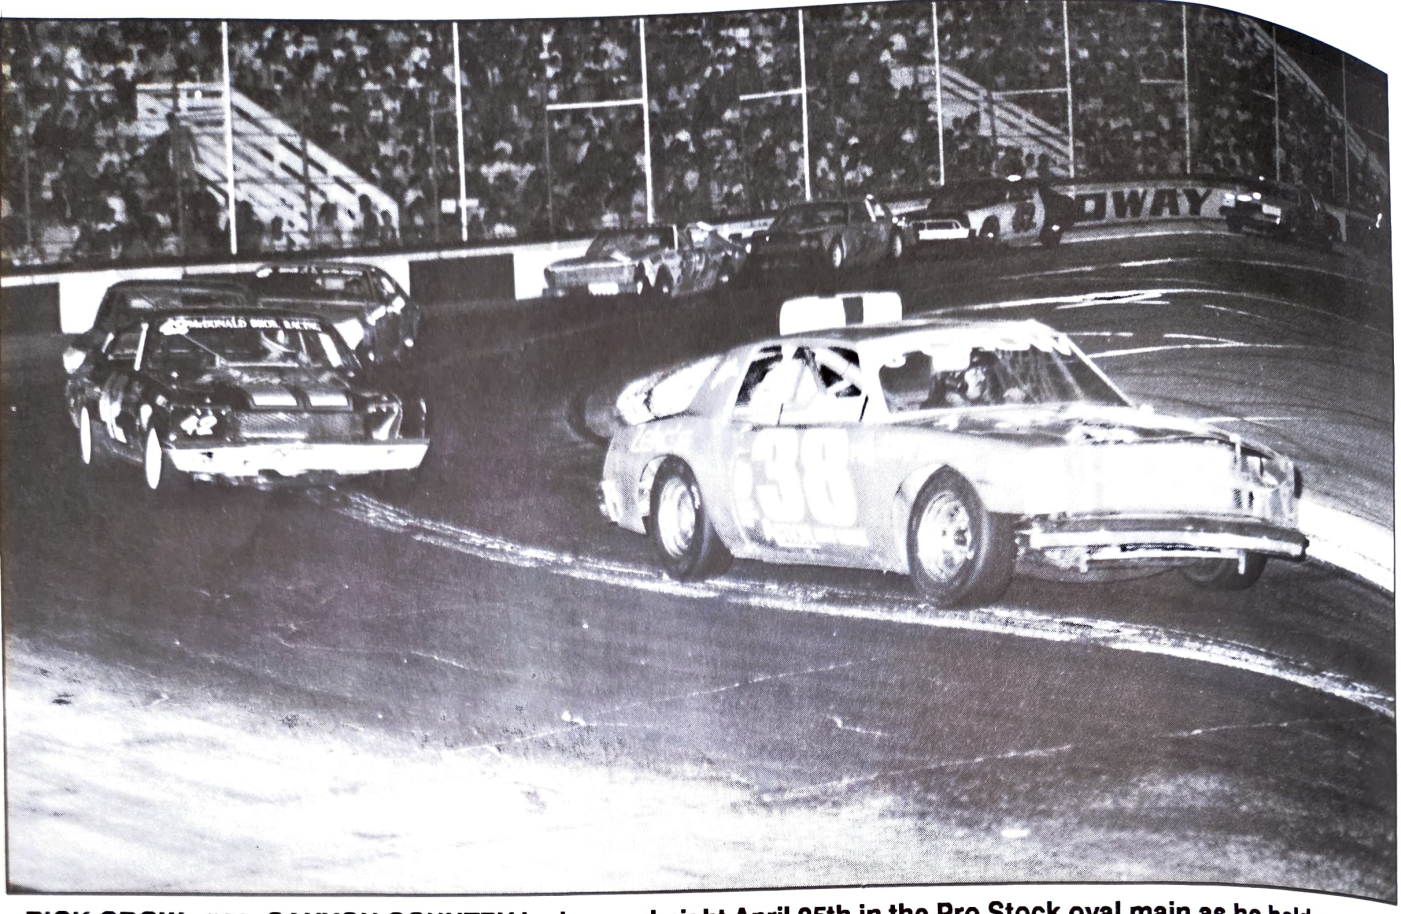
NEXT EGO CHALLENGE
JUNE 20TH!



RICK CROW, #38, CANYON COUNTRY had a good night April 25th in the Pro Stock oval main as he held on to second place behind a hard-charging Terry Custer. Custer, #6, Canoga Park can be seen in this photo in fourth position on one of the restarts. Starting from 12th spot when the green flag dropped, Terry impressed the full house at Saugus Speedway by taking positions one at a time to work his way to the #1 spot and the checkered.
